SECTION I – Module A: Textual Conversation

20 marks

Attempt Question 1

Allow about 40 minutes for this section

Answer the question in a new writing booklet. Extra writing booklets are available.

Your answer will be assessed on how well you:

- demonstrate understanding how composers are influenced by another text's concepts and values
 - evaluate the relationships between texts and contexts
 - organise, develop and express ideas using language appropriate to audience, purpose and form

Question 1- Shakespearean Drama and Prose Fiction (20 marks)

"First, he needed to get his Tempest back. He had to stage it, somehow, somewhere. His reasons were beyond theatrical; they had nothing to do with his reputation, his career- none of that. Quite simply, his Miranda must be released from her glass coffin; she must be given a life. But how to do it, where to find the actors? Actors did not grow on trees, numerous though the trees were around his hovel.

Second he wanted revenge. He longed for it. He daydreamed about it. Tony and Sal must suffer."

Margaret Atwood, Hag-Seed

With reference to the stimulus above and the texts as a whole, compare and contrast the nature of characters and their motives in both The Tempest and Hag-Seed

In your response, make close reference to your prescribed texts.

The prescribed texts are:

Shakespearean Drama - William Shakespeare, The Tempest

and

Prose Fiction - Margaret Atwood, Hag-Seed

SECTION II – Module B: Critical Study of Literature

20 marks
